

May 2014: Stephen Smoliar (Examiner.com):

One of the more interesting performing groups in San Francisco is an ensemble that calls itself the San Francisco Munich Trio. The name signifies the union of San Francisco cellist Rebecca Rust with her husband Friedrich Edelmann, formerly Principal Bassoon for the Munich Philharmonic Orchestra, both performing with Bay Area pianist Vera Breheda. As might be guessed, this unconventional combination of instruments provides for an approach to repertoire that is definitely exploratory and frequently adventurous.